COUNT ONE

The Grand Jury charges:

1. From on or about November 10, 2008, up to and including in or about July 2009, in an offense occurring in and affecting interstate and foreign commerce, HAJI NAJIBULLAH, a/k/a "Najibullah Naim," a/k/a "Abu Tayeb," a/k/a "Atiqullah," AKHUND ZADA, a/k/a "Amir Ashraf," and TIMOR SHAH, the defendants, at least one of whom will be first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, willfully and knowingly seized and detained and threatened to kill, injure, and continue to detain other persons, namely, a national of the United States and two nationals of Afghanistan, and aided and abetted the same, in order to compel a third person, a governmental organization, and the United States Government to do and abstain from doing an act as an explicit and implicit condition for the release of the persons detained, to wit, the defendants, and others known and unknown, detained and threatened to kill an American journalist and two Afghan citizens in Afghanistan, and, in exchange for the release of the three hostages, demanded money from the American journalist's family and the release of Taliban prisoners by the United States Government.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1203(a), 3238 and 2.)

COUNT TWO

The Grand Jury further charges:

2. From on or about November 10, 2008, up to and including in or about July 2009, in an offense occurring in and affecting interstate and foreign commerce, HAJI NAJIBULLAH, a/k/a "Najibullah Naim," a/k/a "Abu Tayeb," a/k/a "Atiqullah," AKHUND ZADA, a/k/a "Amir Ashraf," and TIMOR SHAH, the defendants, at least one of whom will be first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, willfully and knowingly combined, conspired, confederated and agreed together and with each other to violate Title 18, United States Code, Section 1203(a).

3. It was a part and an object of the conspiracy that HAJI NAJIBULLAH, a/k/a "Najibullah Naim," a/k/a "Abu Tayeb," a/k/a "Atiqullah," AKHUND ZADA, a/k/a "Amir Ashraf," and TIMOR SHAH, the defendants, and others known and unknown, would and did seize and detain and threaten to kill, injure, and continue to detain other persons, namely, a national of the United States and two nationals of Afghanistan, in order to compel a third person, a governmental organization, and the United States Government to do and abstain from doing an act as an explicit and implicit condition for the release of the persons detained.

Overt Acts

4. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the illegal object thereof, the following overt acts, among others, were committed:

a. On or about November 10, 2008, HAJI NAJIBULLAH, a/k/a "Najibullah Naim," a/k/a "Abu Tayeb," a/k/a "Atiqullah," the defendant, caused a United States national who was a journalist and two Afghan citizens who were assisting the journalist to be detained by a group of machinegun-toting men in Afghanistan.

b. On or about November 15, 2008, AKHUND ZADA, a/k/a "Amir Ashraf," the defendant, was part of a group of approximately six armed guards who forced the American journalist and the two Afghan citizens to hike across the border from Afghanistan to Pakistan.

c. On or about November 19, 2008, while in Pakistan, NAJIBULLAH and a co-conspirator not named herein ("CC-1") directed the American journalist to call his wife in New York using a satellite telephone.

d. From in or about December 2008 through in or about January 2009, while in Pakistan, CC-1 recorded two videos of the three hostages, each of which featured the three hostages begging for help while two masked guards stood over them and aimed machineguns at them.

e. In or about April 2009, while in Pakistan, NAJIBULLAH recorded a video of the American journalist begging for help while the barrel of a machinegun was pointed at his face.

f. From in or about January 2009, up to and including on or about June 19, 2009, while in Pakistan, TIMOR SHAH, the defendant, served as the head guard of the three hostages.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1203(a) and 3238.)

COUNT THREE

The Grand Jury further charges:

5. From on or about November 10, 2008, up to and including in or about July 2009, in an offense occurring in and affecting interstate and foreign commerce, HAJI NAJIBULLAH, a/k/a "Najibullah Naim," a/k/a "Abu Tayeb," a/k/a "Atiqullah," AKHUND ZADA, a/k/a "Amir Ashraf," and TIMOR SHAH, the defendants, at least one of whom will be first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, willfully and knowingly, during and in relation to a crime of violence for which they may be prosecuted in a court of the United States, used and carried a firearm, and, in furtherance of such crime, possessed a firearm, and aided and abetted the use, carrying, and possession of a firearm, to wit, the defendants, and others known and unknown, possessed machineguns in furtherance of the offense charged in Count One of this Indictment.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 924(c)(1)(A), 924(c)(1)(B)(ii), 3238 and 2.)

COUNT FOUR

The Grand Jury further charges:

6. From on or about November 10, 2008, up to and including in or about July 2009, in an offense occurring in and affecting interstate and foreign commerce, HAJI NAJIBULLAH, a/k/a "Najibullah Naim," a/k/a "Abu Tayeb," a/k/a "Atiqullah," AKHUND ZADA, a/k/a "Amir Ashraf," and TIMOR SHAH, the defendants, at least one of whom will be first brought to and arrested in the Southern District of New York, and others known and unknown, unlawfully, willfully, and knowingly seized, confined, inveigled, decoyed, kidnaped, abducted, and carried away and held for ransom and reward and otherwise persons, namely, a national of the United States and two nationals of Afghanistan, and willfully transported the victims in foreign commerce, traveled in foreign commerce, and used a means, facility, and instrumentality of foreign commerce in committing and in furtherance of the commission of the offense, and aided and abetted the same, to wit, the defendants, and others known and unknown, abducted an American journalist and two Afghan citizens in Afghanistan, held them for ransom in Pakistan, and made international telephone calls in furtherance of the commission of the offense.

(Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1201(a)(1), 3238 and 2.)
